

Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) is offering hands on practical training which will provide you with the skills and knowledge required to work within the hospitality, tourism or events industries.

A participant can be working on a full time, part-time or casual basis or currently seeking employment.

Already in industry? Training is flexible, delivery can be within your workplace at a time that suits you as one of our trainers can come to you or you can attend one of our training locations on the Gold Coast.

Course Cost

Student Contribution Fee: $45 (Concessional $3 per unit) $60 (Non-Concessional $4 per unit), see over for details on concessional and non-concessional criteria, please note co-contribution fees will be charged at the commencement of the course or on a per unit basis.

Students have 10 business days to change their mind and cancel the course, during this cooling off period CTIA will not commence training or accept payment. Cancellation can be made verbally or in writing.

Benefits of Participation

For students who are currently working in industry, this program is designed to be delivered by flexible arrangements to meet your specific needs as far as contact visits, industry consolidation visits and monitoring visits to ensure you remain on track to successfully complete your qualification. This may result in completing the qualification in less than the allocated time/hours.

Students who are new to industry can attend flexible classes that allow the option of completing placement alongside their theory delivery or at the end of the program.

In order to successfully complete the qualification, you must complete 36 industry shifts within a suitable hospitality venue, this venue may be one chosen by you or one CTIA has an affiliation with.

Your course overview

Students who decide to complete fulltime will be required to attend face to face classes which will be timetabled 3 days per week. Training will be delivered within an operating hotel, taking learning out of the classroom and locating it back into the hospitality industry so you have a hands on practical experience.

By aligning ourselves with industry, CTIA can offer you training that is real with real situations and real customers within a real hotel environment you will be able to experience everything the industry has to offer while seeing first-hand how your new skills can be put into action. No simulation! Use current industry equipment and techniques the professionals use.

For eligible students, CTIA may be able to assist with placing you in one of these hotels to complete your 36 industry shifts which is a mandatory component of the course. Students who show consistency in punctuality, application of learning, grooming and attitude may be able to be placed. Interviews will be held with HR to determine suitability.

- (c) the Participant is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person.

How is the course delivered and how long will it take?

Students already in industry can complete by on-the-job training, off-the-job training and by the 'self-paced' method of learning which allows you greater flexibility in choosing the times you study and the time it takes you to complete the course. The volume of learning is 987.5 hours (6-12 months depending on individual circumstances) which includes both structured and non-structured learning. Students new to industry will attend class in person at one of the hotels in conjunction with self paced learning and vocational placement.

Students also need to complete 36 industry shifts, this can be completed in conjunction with your studies or on completion of the theory, this will impact the time it takes you to complete the qualification.

How will participants be assessed?

Assessment is competency based, in that the participant will be required to demonstrate competency in a range of tasks. Assessment procedures are transparent and address the key assessment principles of being valid, reliable, flexible and fair. Assessment strategies include a range of techniques, which include, but are not limited to the use of; direct observation, questions & answers, practical exercises, and case studies.

Students will require a computer with internet access to be able to complete various assessment tasks to achieve the qualification.

Students who can demonstrate that they have already completed a unit of competency below, may apply for Credit Transfer.

What are participants awarded at completion?

Upon successful completion of all units of competency in the course, participants will be issued with a qualification at Certificate III level. Should a participant not complete the entire course then a Statement of Attainment will be given for the units successfully completed. Students have the option to progress to certificate IV or Diploma level in the same or other qualifications.

As a registered training organisation (RTO) CTIA is responsible for quality training and assessment in compliance with the Standards for RTO's (2015) and issuance of AQF qualifications.
