

Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) is offering the Certificate III in Tourism to participants employed within a tourism business or those wishing to enter this vibrant industry.

A participant can be working on a full time, part-time or casual basis or currently seeking employment.

Training is flexible, delivery can be within your workplace at a time that suits you as one of our trainers can come to you or you can attend one of our training locations on the Gold Coast. NB: subject to numbers

Course Cost

Student Contribution Fee: $45 (Concessional $3 per unit) $60 (Non-Concessional $4 per unit), see over for details on concessional and non-concessional criteria, please note co-contribution fees will be charged at the commencement of the course or on a per unit basis.

Students have 10 business days to change their mind and cancel the course, during this cooling off period CTIA will not commence training or accept payment. Cancellation can be made verbally or in writing.

Benefits of Participation

This program is designed to be delivered by flexible arrangements to meet your specific needs as far as contact visits, industry consolidation visits and monitoring visits to ensure you remain on track to successfully complete your qualification. This may result in completing the qualification in less than the allocated time/hours.

Whether you are just starting out and need to know how the industry operates or you have been working within the tourism industry previously and want to return to this dynamic and diverse sector, CTIA can assist with providing you current up to date skills and knowledge you need to succeed.

The Certificate III is an ideal place to start to hone a range of tourism service, sales and operational skills.

Your course overview

Students who decide to complete fulltime will be required to attend face to face classes which will be timetabled over 3 days per week. Training will be delivered within one of our affiliated hotels on the Gold Coast, centrally located in Main Beach. Where better to complete a tourism qualification than the Gold Coast, a world class tourism destination.

This qualification provides a pathway to work in many tourism industry sectors and for a diversity of employers including tour operators, inbound tour operators, visitor information centres, attractions, cultural/heritage sites & any small tourism business requiring multi-skilled staff.

Tourism is booming!

So why not study a course that can get you work ready to start a career in this exciting industry.

How is the course delivered and how long will it take?

Students already in industry can complete by on-the-job training, off-the-job training and by the 'self-paced' method of learning which allows you greater flexibility in choosing the times you study and the time it takes you to complete the course. The volume of learning is 736 hours (6-12 months depending on individual circumstances) which includes both structured and non-structured learning. Students new to industry will attend class in person at one of the hotels in conjunction with self paced learning.

Where participants are in industry CTIA can arrange for a trainer to come to you at work at a convenient time, speak to a course consultant.

How will participants be assessed?

Assessment is competency based, in that the participant will be required to demonstrate competency in a range of tasks. Assessment procedures are transparent and address the key assessment principles of being valid, reliable, flexible and fair. Assessment strategies include a range of techniques, which include, but are not limited to the use of; direct observation, questions & answers, practical exercises, and case studies.

Each student will need access to technical equipment, not limited to: A computer with Microsoft Office, internet connection, an email address and printer/scanner to be able to complete various assessment tasks to achieve the qualification.

Students who can demonstrate that they are already completed a unit of competency below, may apply for Credit Transfer.

What are participants awarded at completion?

Upon successful completion of all units of competency in the course, participants will be issued with a qualification at Certificate III level. Should a participant not complete the entire course then a Statement of Attainment will be given for the units successfully completed. Students have the option to progress to certificate IV or Diploma level in the same or other qualifications.

As a registered training organisation (RTO) CTIA is responsible for quality training and assessment in compliance with the Standards for RTO's (2015) and issuance of AQF qualifications.
