

Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) is offering SIT20125 Certificate II in Tourism including both theory and practical delivery in an Eco Tourism setting on Moreton Island. Students will consolidate the practical application of the qualification in consultation with Tangalooma Island Resort.

The program provides all necessary criteria for the Certificate II in Tourism in an exciting experience of a lifetime.

Study is required over a number of subjects, disseminated into experiential learning through participating in the practical Eco Tourism program and classroom activities. Training will be conducted at your school, as our trainers will come to you.

Course Cost

VETiS is funded by the Department of Trade, Employment and Training, meaning there are no costs to eligible students. The new Career Ready VET in schools program is to help school students make good career and training choices. This funding covers the cost of the qualification and all costs associated with the delivery of the 11 units of competency including resources and consumables, and the full day Tangalooma excursion.

Benefits to Participation

Participation in this program enables students to observe a tourism organisation operating in a natural environment with consideration to sustainability and eco-tourism. This is a great opportunity to participate in a range of activities which will call on both team building and communication skills as they support each other to achieve desired goals.

Successful completion of this qualification may enable students to gain an additional 4 points towards their QCE. Training and program options are designed to be flexible, allowing for sessions outside of regular school hours.

A designated trainer will be available to support students throughout their studies, providing assistance through face-to-face meetings, email, zoom and phone during business hours to address any questions.

Program Inclusions

Career Training Institute of Australia (CTIA) facilitates an experience specifically for students in years 10 to 12 where they can integrate knowledge learnt in class with practical real-life situations experienced in the tourism industry. See first hand the tourism sectors in action! Observe industry experts as they interact with guests and provide advice on products and services all in a real tourism industry environment.

The program takes students out of the classroom and into an interactive environment, allowing students to complete both theory and practical training within a workplace context to emphasise the employability skills required today.

Specifically, students will learn aspects of:

- The unique ecosystem of Moreton Island and the impacts of eco-tourism
- The tourism industry in action and associated jobs
- Front of house tour of Tangalooma Island Resort
- Various tourism activities promoted at Tangalooma, including Wild Dolphin feeding and the 4WD Desert Safari Tour with sand tobogganing (students will get to participate in these activities too!)

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is Eligible to participate?

All Queensland secondary school students in Years 10, 11 and 12 can access VET within any recognised qualification across a range of industries in a school environment; however VET investment funding can only be used for those qualifications identified as employment stream qualifications. Students who complete a certificate I or II level qualification at school are still eligible to access further Queensland Government subsidised training post-school such as the Certificate 3 Guarantee. Students undertaking VETiS, which is resourced by the VET investment budget, will be funded to complete one employment stream qualification at the certificate I or II level.

Students will be required to complete a student training and employment survey within three months of completing or discontinuing the qualification.

How is the course delivered and how long will it take?

The Certificate II in Tourism is delivered by participation in a practical consolidation program, attending face to face training and self-directed study and projects which can be done independently. This method of learning allows greater flexibility in choosing the times you study and the time it takes you to complete the course. Face to face training is required for consolidation of a number of subjects which is disseminated into experiential learning through participating in the practical consolidation program and classroom activities. This will be organised on an individual basis and tailored to each school's needs.

Study can be done within the school curriculum over the course of 1 year or alternatively block training which generally takes up to 6 months. The Volume of Learning is 605 hours which includes both structured and non-structured learning. A combination of trainer facilitated classroom learning and independent study may take place. Negotiated individual or group study support sessions are available with a teacher depending on the needs of the participant/s. Participants with existing underpinning skills and knowledge may complete the qualification within a shorter timeframe based on their application to achieving completion of the required learning and assessments.

As part of our pre-enrolment process, please consider the skills and learning objectives of the course to ensure that the training product best aligns with your existing competencies and supports your career goals.

Students will need access to technical equipment not limited to: A computer with Microsoft Office, internet connection, an email address and printer/scanner to complete various assessment tasks.

How will participants be assessed?

Assessment is competency based, in that the participant will be required to demonstrate competency in a range of tasks. Assessment procedures are transparent and address the key assessment principles of being valid, reliable, flexible and fair. Assessment strategies include a range of techniques, which include, but are not limited to the use of; direct observation, questions & answers, practical exercises, and case studies.

Students who can demonstrate that they are already completed a unit of competency below, may apply for Credit Transfer.

What are participants awarded at completion ?

Upon successful completion of all units of competency in the course, participants will be issued with an SIT20125 - Certificate II in Tourism. Should a participant not complete the entire course then a Statement of Attainment will be given for the units successfully completed.

Students who successfully complete the Certificate II in Tourism could progress to a range of other qualifications in the service industries. These include SIT30125 Certificate III in Tourism and finally SIT50122 Diploma of Travel and Tourism Management.

CTIA retains sole responsibility for the quality of all training and assessment, in compliance with the 2025 Standards for RTOs, and issues AQF qualifications upon successful completion
